February 17th, 1892 was a day long to be remembered in the home of James and Margaret Dean Anderson near Glade Mills, Butler County, PA. This was their Golden Wedding Day. The day was all that could be desired. The roads although somewhat icy were in such condition as to enable about 80 friends and neighbors with 7 children and 13 grandchildren together at this hospitable manse; no more brightly did the sun illumine the sky than did these familiar faces illumine the countenance of the aged couple as one by one they received the hearty congratulations of the guests. Soon after the hour of 11 AM, the guests were led to the dining room where they received a bountiful supply of such things as only those of good old descent can furnish. All having been amply refreshed; quietness was restored by the singing of an anthem by some of the guests; after prayer by the Pastor; a toast to the bride and groom was given by Rev. T. L. Scott returned missionary from India who had been associated with their daughter Emma Dean Anderson in the Jhelum Mission in India; this was responded to by Rev H. R. Park of West Union United Presbyterian Church in his usual spicy manner; Rev. W. S. McNees gave a toast to the grandchildren; followed by a letter from a former pastor Rev. H. E. Lackey not being able to attend; a toast to the parents setting forth their noble Christian character; a "Prophecy" was the title of a paper from Rev S. M. Krohn, College Corner, Ohio son in law of host and hostess; then followed a few brief remarks by the Pastor; James and Margaret Dean Anderson were happy recipients of valuable gifts of gold, greenbacks and other useful gifts; Then followed a history of the family which brought forth much mirth from a former Pastor Rev I. T. Wright. Letters of regret were read from ones who were unable to attend. After singing last 2 verses of 72nd Psalm to tune of "Cornation" the guests were dismissed with the benediction. Another hand shake and a wish of many more pleasant days to come - the crowd dispersed feeling it had been a day well spent and never to be forgotten.

Notes for Daniel Anderson:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Tree #0066, Date of Import: Sep 25, 1998]

Following his marriage, Daniel Anderson bought more than 100 acres of woodland, two miles from Parkwood. With his wife, he started to clear the land and build a home. He lived there for 30 years, when he bought the farm on the Kittanning pike. Daniel resided here until his death. At the age of eighty-six (86) a picture was taken of him feeding his sheep.

Daniel was born on the old homestead farm of 800 acres. This tract was later divided into smaller farms and a portion of the land was devoted to a town site for the village of Parkwood, which was laid out for William Anderson by Thompson McCrea on New Year's day - 1848. The town that was the home of the famous Rebel prison in which so many Union soldiers suffered and died during the Civil War.

In 1773 in Indiana County, there was sold to Moses Hobson 315 acres of land for sixteen dollars and fifty-nine cents ($ 16.59). Divisions were made from time to time in this acreage until today the original 315 acres comprise sections of many farms.

In 1838, a brick house was built thereon, and recently a centennial party was held to mark the passing of one hundred years in which this house has given service. The original patent granted in 1773 and signed by Governor McKean was read. The bricks for the home were baked in a kiln on the farm and wood cut and sawed on the sawmill situated on the neighboring farm - all this during the days of the "Indian menace".

Celebrated 60th wedding anniversary on March 3rd.

Had one of the best producing farms in Indiana County,

February 19, 1861^{277,278}

Notes for Thomas Anderson:

Civil War Veteran - Co F, 74 Regiment - PA Volunteers - he was a private. The box carried by Thomas Anderson throughout the Civil War contained a lock of his daughter's hair. It was returned to his wife after his death. He should have been home. The war was over. In his last letter, he wrote that the war would soon be over. When received, it already was. Leona Bracken had the box and the letter. These were passed on to Thelma Hayden. Copies of the letter are in the hands of Martha Anderson McShane. He probably died of dysentery. Thomas erected CALDWELL POTTERY about 1850. He hired 1 or 2 men. Caldwell got it in 1868 and had 5 to 8 men. McNees 2 to 4 men. The stoneware was grey - stone pumps and drainpipe were made here as well.[108018.GED]

Notes for John Logan Anderson:

Married in home of Rev. David Blair of Indiana, PA. John & Eliza bought part of his father's farm. He was a cabinet maker, blacksmith, made shoes and boots. John also had a broom machine. Made a cider press by putting a heavy beam under a block, a vessel below contained apples, he weighted it down and made cider. He made coffins, a length of cornstock was the length of a body and a notch he had made in a stick fitted for the width of a body. He made flyers, spools, wheels for spindles for spinning yarn. Women walked or rode horseback to get spinning outfits repaired. Eliza wove blankets, sheeting, toweling. Celebrated 50th Wed Anniv with 127 guests. John fell down the steps at this celebration and the injuries lead to his death. Martha lived at home and helped with domestic work. Elizabeth lived at home - taught Sabbath School, charter member of Armstrong Grange # 1695. Mary - lived at home until her health failed. She kept many records of the early family which much information is given here.[108018.GED] [Brøderbund WFT Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Tree #0066, Date of Import: Sep 25, 1998]

PREFACE

This information is from the Genealogical Center in Londonderry and the Public Records Office in Belfast, Northern Ireland. Records are not complete because many of the records were destroyed by fire when buildings were burned during the Irish uprisings of 1916 and 1922-23.

There were many Andersons and Logans who came from the lowlands of Scotland and settled in the northern part of Ireland.

It is not certain but it appears that the earliest William Anderson that we have record of was a son of a John Anderson. There were many William and John Andersons in Northern Ireland.

The Andersons were mostly Scot-Presbyterian in their faith. At the time of the emigration of William and Elizabeth Logan Anderson, their siblings, and later their parents, William and Mary Haggarty (Hegarty) Anderson, there was religious persecution in Ireland. All people were required to tithe to the Church of Ireland (similar to Episcopal). Many people objected since they were not of that church. There may have been other reasons for the Andersons and others to come to America but that appears to be the main reason for leaving Ireland at time--1816.

Ireland is sub-divided into counties. The Andersons in question were settled in County Derry. Counties were sub-divided into Civil Parishes. The Andersons were from the parish of Aghadowey. The Civil Parishes were sub-divided into town lands. Town lands were like small townships. The Andersons were from Meave Manougher which had a little over 176 acres. About eighty acres of Meave Manougher was farmed by the Andersons. It is not known whether the Andersons owned the land or if they were tenant farmers. Quite often town lands were owned by companies. Some of the companies were very helpful to persecuted people and in many instances paid their passage to America.

Meave Manougher is recorded as Merchant Taylor's lands. It is in the southwest of the Parish of Aghadowey on the boundary of the Parish of Errigal and North of Shanlongford. The land rises from southeast to northwest from 350 to 396 feet. There is a hill and "two piles of rocks--" "Meave's Pointed rocks or pinnacles." Other derivations are "Maud's Hilly Land", and "The O'Connor's Plain".

There is a little crossroads village called Ringsend., It has a small post office« small store, a few houses, and a Presbyterian Church that dates to 1835. It is an offspring of the Killaig Presbyterian Church.

Meave Manouger today is mostly beautiful farmland of rolling hills with broad valleys of fields fenced with stone walls and hedge rows.

There are no Andersons living in the Meave Manouger area but there is a George Hegarty. He said the Hegartys came from farther North at Castle Rock. His people have only owned their farm a little over a hundred years.

The Family Treemaker Software owned by RB Craig <bobcraig@peoplepc.com> includes IMAGES of Family Group Sheets, Ancestor Charts, Maps of IRELAND (3 including CIVIL PARISHES), a personal letter from Dr. Howard Blair Anderson to Robert Blair Craig, and several very early Anderson Photographs. Requests for files considered. All this data is provided by HB Anderson, July 20, 2002.

Dear Robert,

I am sending a copy of an e-mail which I sent to you last February. Evidently I used the wrong address. I really enjoy viewing your website and congratulate you on your efforts. I see where you talked with Howard Anderson and Anna Koontz recently. I was in the Indiana area back on July 2&3 and tried to visit with Howard but he wasn't home. My sister Janice was with me and she got to see Parkwood and the West Union Cemetery for the first time.

I am going to send you a few photos and some info on the West Union Church. You may already have some of this material. One photo was taken around 1896 and is a group shot of over 100 people. The other is of an Anderson-Craig reunion in 1938. I obtained these from Anna Koontz. Hopefully you may recognize some ancestors.

I will try to explain and identify some people with a note when I send the packet.

Here are my ancestral lines:

I am James Allen Anderson, Jr. 1949

I am the son of James Allen Anderson, Sr. 1928-1999 and Priscilla Goldsmith.

I am the grandson of John Smith Anderson 1881-1961 and Joletta Ritchey 1890-1943.

I am the gr-grandson of James Anderson 1850-1919 and Mary Caroline Templeton 1850-1893. I am the gr-gr-grandson of John Logan Anderson 1816-1894 and Eliza Caldwell 1820-1907.

I am the gr-gr-gr-grandson of William Anderson 1790-1879 and Elizabeth Logan 1798-1871.

I am the gr-gr-gr-gr-grandson of William Anderson 1750-183? and Mary Haggerty 1750-183?. I hope to hear from you and will continue to watch and enjoy your website.

Sincerely,

Jim

PM Subject: Craig & Anderson families

Dear Robert,

My name is James Anderson. I live in Erie, PA and am originally from Aliquippa, PA. I have been doing some genealogy for the past 10 years or so. I came upon your website for the Craig family just the other day and think it is great!! I believe you and I are 4th cousins. You and I are the gr-gr-gr-grandsons of William and Elizabeth Logan Anderson. I have met quite a few new relatives over the past few years. Among them are Dr. Howard B. Anderson and Anna Koontz. Anna has a lot of information on our families and Howard keeps in touch with the Craigs. I guess he went to a recent Craig reunion as he called me and asked if I would be interested in coming down for it. I was unable to attend.

I have seen the Anderson home in Parkwood and have seen West Union Cemetery where our ancestors are buried. I usually go to Indiana County each year to research my other family names ( Caldwell, Templeton, Elder, Marshall ).

If you are interested in corresponding or would like to see my Anderson lineage please write or e-mail me. Hope to hear from you!

Sincerely,

Jim Anderson

Notes for James Young:

In 1835 James came to US with William and James Anderson. James worked a short time near Pittsburgh, PA, then went to Philadelphia, PA. Thence to Harrisburg where he spent the last years of his life. He did not let his friends know or his family know where he was. When his wife and younger members of his family came to the US, they could not locate him. They settled in Parkwood where William and James were. Mrs. Young came to the US about 1840 and died at age 80. James Sr., Upon his deathbed told the people he lived with that he had two brothers-in-law in Indiana County. They wrote to the family. NOTES for JY (Broderbund WFT Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Tree #0066, Date of Import: Sept 25, 2998).

4iii. William Anderson, born 1790 in County Derry, Ireland; died April 08, 1879 in Parkwood, Indiana, Co, PA; married Elizabeth Logan 1814.

iv. John Anderson, born 1788 in Derry, Ireland; married Margaret Thompson 1814; born in Derry, Ireland.

Notes for John Anderson:

In your records you have both James and John as being the son fo William. & Mary Haggerty. My records show it was John. He settled at Taylorsville near Clymer and it was to his home that William. & Mary came and lived until they moved to Parkwood to William. & Elizabeth Logan Anderson's home. I have found that John had a daughter named Jane who married Alexander Stevens. Jane had a son Shadrack Stevens whose daughter Blanch married Homer Bagley. Home Bagley's mother was Elizabeth Brown who was my grandmother Anderson's sister Jennie Brown married to Samuel Anderson. Homer Bagley's son, Col., Ronald Bagley, asked me if I was any relation to the John Andersons of Taylorsville. Until then I didn't know Ronald (second cousin) was double related to me.
