Notes for Sandra Jean Barr:

Hi Bob,

This is so funny, I purchased an old set of the History Of Indiana County Pa off the internet about a year or so ago and the RHEA in the index has a pencil mark beside it then on down further it has one by Joseph. What are the chances. I would assume this book at one time belonged to some interested in the Rhea family of Indiana County. There were a bunch of them.

Supposedly the borough of Barr Slope was our GGrandfathers farm at one time till he sold out to the coal mines. I have the Barr family on Family Tree Maker if you have that program and am putting the outline more or less on a little paper to take to the reunion with me. Wish I had a lap top, something to work for in the future. I was born in Barr Slope and spent many summers back there with my grandfather and grandmother Barr. I have been talking to Connie Little which I believe is Sandys sister. I hope to update some of my information at the family reunion. I will forward you some of what I have right now and if you can't understand it let me know. Wm. Barr had two wives, our grandmother Margaret Palmer died young giving birth. He then married a Margaret Lydic and they had two children that I know of. He and Margaret Palmer had four. Here is a brief outline of what I have.

Let me know if this helps and I do have much more to enter...

Bill

Notes for Edward Clair Rhea:

Hi Bob,

Got to see Sandys sister Connie at the Barr reunion. Maybe she will come next year. Really enjoyed being back there and seeing everyone after probably 35-40 years. Funny how time flys and as we get older seems to fly faster.

Take Care,

Also have one of Barbara somewhere,

Bill

Barbara Ann Barr, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Barr of Dixonville, became the bride of Reno Pozzini, son of Mar. and Mrs. Frederick Pozzini of Clymer, RD 1, on Saturday morning, July 16. The Rev. Father William Coleman officiated for the Nupbial Mass at nine o'clock in the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church.

Pink and white carnations decorated the main altar and white carnations were presented to the Blessed Mother by the bride. Musical numbers included, "Our Father," "Ava Maria," and "Oh Beautiful Mother" was played while the bride presented flowers to the Blessed Mother.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown made of white Chantilly lace, styled with a netted bodice with batteau neckline and elbow length sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her veil of French illusion edged with Echantilly lace was attached to a crown of seed pearls.

Mrs. Harry Leonard, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a pink Chantilly lace gown and a pale pink crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barr wore a two piece dress of blue linen and silk for her daughter's wedding, and the mother of the groom wore a rose crepe dress. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

The wedding reception was held in the Greek Catholic Hall in Dixonville at six o'clock Saturday evening with a buffet dinner. Dancing followed later in the evening.
