

Descendants of William Creaque

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM¹ CREAQUE was born Abt. 1730 in Craig Head, Scotland.

Notes for WILLIAM CREAQUE:

William Creaque was born in Craig Head, Scotland about 1730. He was a Presbyterian Ulster Scot and he was reputed to be a soldier, which is one likely explanation for his migration to Ireland. William had at least two sons, Joseph and William. William Creaque was born about 1750 near Mullaughfarn, County Fermanagh, North Ireland and he died 25 December 1836 in Armstrong Township, Indiana County, PA. William married Mary Gamble, about 1787 in Ireland, and they had six children, all born in Ireland. Our Craig family emigrated from North Ireland in four different groups, all coming to western Pennsylvania, settling in the counties of Allegheny and Indiana. Please see the CRAIG HISTORY for a full narrative. The children of William and Mary Creaque were all most likely born in Lowerstown, which is located near the present day town of Irvinestown.

Generation No. 2

2. WILLIAM² CREAQUE (*WILLIAM*¹) was born 1750 in Mullaughfarn, County Fermanagh, N Ireland, and died December 25, 1836 in Armstrong Twp., Indiana Co., PA. He married MARY GAMBLE. She was born 1770 in No. Ireland, and died June 02, 1856 in Armstrong Twp., Indiana Co., PA.

Notes for WILLIAM CREAQUE:

William Craig was a Presbyterian Ulster Scott, his fore bearers coming to Northern Ireland from the Scottish Lowlands...all children were born in Northern Ireland. William and Mary emigrated to the United States between 1820 and 1826 settling in Armstrong Twp., Indiana Co., PA. William Craig purchased 322 1/4 acres of land in Armstrong Twp., from Anthony and Margaret Calwell, the deed recorded in Indiana County on November 12, 1828 and witnessed by William's son, Hugh Craig as well as David Johnston, perhaps the husband of his Daughter, Ann.

William Craig first appears in Armstrong Twp., tax records in 1829 as William Creigh, paying $1.38 tax for 232 acres of land and one cow. Hugh Creigh is listed as paying 33 cents tax for 100 acres of land.

William Craig last appears in the tax records in 1837 paying tax on 210 acres of land as well as two horses and two cows. The notation is crossed out with a "transfer to Hugh Craig" indicating that William Craig was by then dead.

I have hit a brick wall going back to Ireland, My gggrandfather John Craig B. circ 1807 Armagh Co. and his brother William B. 1804 came to Canada, their cousins James and William also came, James staying in Canada and William going to the U.S. If you should find a family that seems to fit this I would love to hear so I know where to start in Ireland with parents and siblings
Thankyou

I have hit the so-called brick wall....
 So I have gather some information.that I hope will help.

3. JOHN³ CRAIG (WILLIAM² CREAQUE, WILLIAM¹) was born May 18, 1790 in Antrim, Northern Ireland, and died April 12, 1830 in Allegheny County, PA.. He married (1) ELIZABETH LIGGETT. She was born August 12, 1793, and died August 25, 1876 in Steubenville, Ohio. He married (2) MARGARET CATHERINE SHIELDS, daughter of JOHN SHIELDS and MARY MARSHALL. She was born 1790 in Abt. 1790.

Notes for JOHN CRAIG:

I have some info I would like to share with anyone searching Craig Genealogy. I have history dating back to 1750's and immigration to US via Wales via Scotland around that time. Mostly factual, some conjecture on the part of my Grandfather Rush Warren Carter(adopted name) born 1899 who had a rich Craig history handed down to him and wrote a book titled "Tales of Leavenworth" with the history of Craigs settling in Harrison County Indiana.

David Craig b 1764 NJ
John Craig b ? but married 1766
Mary Craig b 1775 NJ
Sarah Craig b ? but married 1823

(1) John Craig, born 18 May 1790 and he died 12 April 1830 in Allegheny County, PA. John married the former Elizabeth Liggett, born 12 August 1793 and who died 25 August 1876 in Steubenville, Ohio. John and Elizabeth came to America in 1822, with their two eldest children, Joseph and Hugh, first living in Herriottsville, Washington County, PA, but in the spring of 1828 they moved to Allegheny City which was on the north side of the Allegheny River, opposite to Pittsburgh. John was a stonemason by trade, while Elizabeth ran a grocery, which was located on the west side of Federal Street, in which her son, Joseph Craig, worked part time from an early age. Elizabeth purchased the ground on Diamond Street, and in a small frame building, she attended to the grocery business, in which she prospered very well. Elizabeth sold her interests to her son, Joseph in 1846. John and Elizabeth Craig had five children: Joseph, Hugh, John, and two daughters, names unknown and who died young. Both John and Elizabeth are buried in Union Dale Cemetery, near Pittsburgh.

Notes for JOSEPH CRAIG:

Joseph Craig, son of John, was born 4 April 1819 in Ireland, and he died 18 May 1893 in Allegheny City, PA. Joseph married Matilda Staunton, the daughter of William Staunton and Mary Evans, on 21 April 1847. Matilda was born 2 April 1827 in Allegheny, PA. Joseph worked in his mother's grocery store from an early age. In 1846 he bought out his mother's store and "for several years he carried on in the frame building but finally moved into what was said to be 48 South Diamond Street, a three story brick building, separated from his former store by an alley about twenty feet wide, and called Pine Alley. The rear and second and third floors was a residence for himself and his wife, Matilda Staunton Craig. The first three children, William, Mary Elizabeth, and Edwin were born there. In the spring of 1857 Joseph Craig built another store on his property at 47 Diamond Street, all of which was used for his "grocery, lime, grain, and seed trade." In the spring of the same year, they moved to a house in Allegheny which had been built by Matilda's father and in which she had been born. The last two of Joseph and Matilda's children, Margaret and Joseph were born there. In 1904 Joseph Craig had the house dismantled, put on a barge, and shipped down the Ohio River to Stoop's Ferry. It was then reassembled at the top of the hill on the farm known as the Staunton Farm.

Dear Robert,

My name is Tad Bradley and I am a descendant of the following family line:

- 1) John Shields & Elizabeth Speedy (GGG)
- 2) Andrew Shields & Anna Catherine Craig (GG)
- 3) Wilson Craig Shields & Cora May Craig (Great)
- 4) Charles Garfield Shields & Ella Glasser (Grandfather)
- 5) Harry Shields (my father changed his name to James Andrew Bradley in 1940.)
- 6) Tad Bradley

If you should have any further information please reply:

bradleytm@msn.com

Dear Robert,

I have enclosed a few attachments that I have been following with regard of the Shields family I have it all compiled just waiting to download to a cd format. Andrew Shields was married twice, with Catherine being on my line. My Grandfather Charles married Lottie after the death of Ella with no children. I remember my Grandfather & Lottie as a child growing up but for what ever reason my father and Charles didn't see each other for the years to come it has been very difficult to trace back with very little information. I do know that my father was also married prior to my mother with two children & this created havoc amongst the family and also with the death of Ella it was all about the same era of 1944.

Charles Garfield Shields & Ella Glasser are buried together here in Portland Oregon out of their marriage there were 5 children:

- (female) Marion,
- (m) Ted,
- (m) Carl,
- (m) Bert,
- (my father) Harry Shields.

The information I have is that the only living relative is Ted and he is 101 years old I am trying to locate him here in Portland Oregon.

My immediate Family is as follows:

James Andrew Bradley (Harry Shields) B: 7/27/1920 D: 4/17/1994.

Mary Jackson (mother) B: 2/04/1929 D: 3/08/1999.

Children:

James Andrew Bradley (deceased)

Cheryl Lou Bradley

Rodney Allen Bradley (deceased)

Dan Riley Bradley

Peggy Rae Bradley

Joe Dane Bradley

Tad Michael Bradley

Thanks for the web sites you sent it had alot of information that was needed It appears you have really done some work yourself.If you should know of any living descendants of the Shields family that can help with my search or you have more yourself please reply.
