Hannah J Craig used to take her two sons to visit Uncle Ward and Aunt Vira. I, Bob Craig, remember these visits quite well. Uncle Ward was quite handy with his hands. He made things like cutting an outline of a 1/4 moon and star out of wood, would finish the wood and the end product had a hanging stair steps which was handy for putting Nic-knacks on and hanging it on the wall. Mom had one of these sets. He also made corner Nic-Nack racks. They were about a foot and one half tall and were made to hang in a corner of a room. He also made figures out of wood and in some way would suspend them on string and had a sort of paddle he would sit on and was able to make the figures walk by tapping on the paddle. He also was able to take a plain ordinary carpenters saw and make music. He did this by using a bow somewhat lie a violin and by bending the saw was able to make music. Quite good at it. Vira also was handy with her hands and took cards, like Christmas cards, and fasten them together in a fan fashion and they were quite attractive. If my memory serves me right Uncle Ward had a huge ball of string. He saved string and would wind it on the ball. The girls come to mind as pleasant and rather full of giggles. We enjoyed visiting them in Heilwood several times.

Notes for Vira Viola Holmes:

Holmes Uncapher relationship Obit. Surviving are the following children: Mrs George (Mary) Fetterman, Whitney Point, NY; Mrs. Warren (Stella) Fetterman, Barnesboro RD 2; Mrs. David (Gladys) Mothlin, Vintondale RD 1; Mis Hazel Uncapheer, Westlebanon; and Mrs John (Charlotte) Bratcher, Pesotum, IL; 10 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren. She was preceded by her husband Ward A and by her parents and two sisters.

Notes for Andrew Uncapher:

The Uncapher Family book states that Andrew was born in 1778 and in another place it states 1782. It goes on to state that Andrew died in 1826 at the age of 82. That would put his birth at 1744, four years before his father Philip. Something is amiss with this. Info Update

Notes for HUGH MILLIN:

I thought he was a son of James and Mary Cunningham Millen but now think he may have been a son of Captain James and Anna Sherbly Millen because of his date of birth.

Source of emmigration according to John Millen of W. Virginia was that he landed in Philadelphia, PA in 1819.

From www.tombstonehopper

On June 22, 1831, Hugh Millen, then of Armstrong County, PA, purchased 166 acres plus 100 perches of land in Jefferson County, for $165, from the Holland Land Company. This land was part of warrant #3029, which had been surveyed for the Holland Land Company in 1829, as part of tract of 990 acres. Hugh and Esther Millen are buried in the Beaver Run Cemetery in Rose Township, Jefferson County, PA.

Names seem to be interchanged as Millin/Millen.

Comments Browsed your site for awhile, as I am a direct descendant of Captain James Millen, through Sergeant William A. Millen, Company A, 78th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. Just returned from a family reunion in Nashville, where I saw Dennis and Devona (Craig) Mattini. Visited Stone`s River battlefield. One observation. The picture of the gravestone of James Millen is actually the gravestone of his grandson. The James that fought in the Revolution was born circa 1765, died 1844. THANKS!

Hi, cousin (?) Bob,

Here is a little more info for your tree. It`s a link to my cousin Diane`s page, and has the information for Mary Elizabeth Millen, who married Taylor Walter Craig on May 24, 1911, James R. Millen, William Millen, John Millen, etc. I showed her your page, and she was quite delighted. Don`t be surprised if she contacts you.

I am researching the Millen family descended from Capt. James & (Anna Sherbly) Millen d. 1844. He was in the Revolutionary War in Westmoreland Co., PA. His descendents are William Millen b. abt. 1790, James R. Millen, Sr. b.1818, William A. Millen b.3-31-1841 (Civil War), Mathew Dickey Millen b. 9-13-1866, and Roy Eugene Millen b. 9-28-1891.

I am also researching the Watt family descended from James Watt b.1796 (m. Nancy), William Simpson Watt b.1816 in Porter Twp., Jefferson Co., PA and d.1870, Thomas Miles Watt b. 9-11-1862. Thomas married Margaret Emily Bish and had one son, William T. Watt, and 8 daughters, Effie Mary, Jesse, Sarah Ellen, Hazel Dora, Vada Jane, Elizabeth, Cora Alice, and Bertha.

I would love to hear from you if you have any knowledge of either of these families. Any thing you could add would be appreciated.
